

MONTE ROSA THERAPEUTICS, INC.

Compensation Committee Charter

I. General Statement of Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Monte Rosa Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) is to discharge certain of the Board’s responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s non-employee directors and executive officers, oversee the Company’s overall compensation structure, policies and programs, and review the Company’s processes and procedures for the consideration and determination of non-employee director and executive officer compensation. The primary objective of the Compensation Committee is to develop and implement compensation policies and plans that ensure the attraction and retention of key management personnel, the motivation of management to achieve the Company’s corporate goals and strategies and the alignment of the interests of management with the long-term interests of the Company’s stockholders. The Compensation Committee may also review and discuss with management the Company’s key human resource management strategies and programs, including (i) employee health, safety and well-being and (ii) initiatives and programs related to corporate culture, employee engagement and inclusivity and enterprise-wide talent development and succession planning.

II. Composition

The number of individuals serving on the Compensation Committee shall be fixed by the Board from time to time but shall consist of no fewer than three members, each of whom shall satisfy the independence standards established pursuant to Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Nasdaq Stock Market Rules, subject to any applicable exceptions in the Nasdaq Stock Market Rules. In determining the members of the Compensation Committee, the Board will consider whether the members qualify as “non-employee directors” as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

The Board shall appoint the members of the Compensation Committee annually and may replace or remove them at any time, with or without cause. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from the Compensation Committee. Vacancies, for whatever reason, may be filled only by the Board. The Board shall designate one member of the Compensation Committee to serve as chair of the Compensation Committee (the “Chair”).

III. Meetings

The Compensation Committee shall meet as often as it determines appropriate, in person, by video or telephone conference or by other means of communications by which all participants can hear each other. A majority of the members of the Compensation Committee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of holding a meeting, and the Compensation Committee may act by vote of a majority of members present at a meeting. In lieu of a meeting, the Compensation Committee may act by unanimous written consent (which may include electronic consent) in accordance with the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The Chair of the Compensation Committee, in consultation with the other members and management, may set meeting agendas consistent with this Compensation Committee Charter (the "Charter").

IV. Compensation Committee Activities

The Compensation Committee's purpose and responsibilities shall be to:

A. Matters Related to Compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer

- Determine the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO").
- Review and approve the corporate goals and objectives to be considered in determining the compensation of the CEO.
- Evaluate the CEO's performance in light of the goals and objectives that were set for the CEO and determine and approve the CEO's compensation based on such evaluation.
- In formulating its determination regarding the long-term incentive component of the CEO's compensation, should consider the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to CEOs at comparable companies and the awards given to the CEO in past years.
- Review periodically the aggregate amount of compensation being paid or potentially payable to the CEO.
- Exclude the CEO during voting or deliberations regarding the CEO's compensation.

B. Matters Related to Compensation of the Officers Other Than the Chief Executive Officer

- Determine the compensation of all officers of the Company other than the CEO; for purposes hereof, the term "officer" has the meaning defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act and Rule 16a-1 promulgated thereunder.
- Review periodically the aggregate amount of compensation being paid or potentially payable to the Company's officers.

C. Recommendations Regarding Non-Employee Director and Executive Officer Compensation

- Periodically review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of non-employee directors.

D. Matters Related to Compensation of the Company's Directors and Members of Senior Management

- Review and make such recommendations to the Board as the Compensation Committee deems advisable with regard to the compensation of the directors of the Company, including with respect to any equity-based plans.
- Provide oversight of management's decisions regarding the compensation of all members of senior management of the Company (other than the CEO and other officers described above), including with respect to any incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans.
- Review periodically the aggregate amount of compensation being paid or potentially payable to members of the Company's senior management

E. Compensation Committee Report

- Review and discuss with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, if any, to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K ("CD&A").
- Based on its review and discussions with management, recommend to the Board that the CD&A, if and when required, be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K.
- Prepare the Compensation Committee Report, if and when required, to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Nasdaq Stock Market rules, and any other rules and regulations applicable to the Company.

F. Incentive-Based Compensation and Equity-Based Plans

- Review and approve grants and awards under incentive-based compensation plans and equity-based plans, in each case consistent with the terms of such plans.
- Review and recommend to the Board policies and procedures for the grant of equity-based awards, including the Company's Equity Award Grant Policy as may be in effect from time to time.
- Act as the administrator under the Company's equity-based plans.

G. Compensation Recovery Policy

- The Compensation Committee has the authority to adopt and administer a compensation recovery policy including, without limitation, a policy designed to comply with any rules or regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and Nasdaq pursuant to Section 10D of the Exchange Act.

H. Annual Evaluation of the Compensation Committee

- Perform an annual evaluation of the Compensation Committee and report the results to the Board.

I. Review of Charter

- Annually review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and submit any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

J. Processes and Procedures for Considering and Determining Director and Executive Officer Compensation

- Review and reassess periodically (and where appropriate, make such recommendations to the Board as the Compensation Committee deems advisable with regard to) the Company's processes and procedures for the consideration and determination of director and executive officer compensation, and review and discuss with management any description of such processes and procedures to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K.

V. Additional Compensation Committee Authority

The Compensation Committee is authorized, on behalf of the Board, to do any of the following:

A. Matters Related to Compensation Consulting Firms or Other Outside Advisers

- Retain or obtain the advice of compensation consultants, legal counsel and/or other advisers.
- Have sole responsibility for the appointment, retention, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser (each, a "Consultant") it retains (payment, as determined by the Compensation Committee, of reasonable compensation to any such Consultant to be funded by the Company); and
- Before selecting a Consultant consider all factors relevant to the Consultant's independence from management of the Company, including the following:

- The provision of other services to the Company by the Consultant's employer;
- The amount of fees received from the Company by the Consultant's employer, as a percentage of the total revenue of the Consultant's employer;
- The policies and procedures of the Consultant's employer that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
- Any business or personal relationship of the Consultant with a member of the Compensation Committee;
- Any stock of the Company owned by the Consultant; and
- Any business or personal relationship of Consultant or the Consultant's employer with an executive officer of the Company.

The foregoing shall not apply to inside legal counsel or to a Consultant whose role is limited to the following activities for which no disclosure would be required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of Regulation S-K: (i) consulting on a broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company and that is available generally to all salaried employees or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the Consultant and about which the Consultant does not provide advice.

B. Delegation of Authority to Make Equity Grants

- Delegate authority to the CEO to grant equity-based awards under any incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans to employees who are not subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, subject to any equity grant guidelines or vesting policy approved by the Board.

C. Succession Planning and Talent Development

- Review and discuss with the Board corporate succession plans for the CEO and other key officers of the Company.
- As a complement to the Board's oversight of executive succession planning, the Compensation Committee will periodically review and discuss with management its talent development and related initiatives.

D. Continuing Education

- Periodically prepare or assemble materials and conduct sessions for directors on topics that will assist them in discharging their duties.

E. Employee Health, Safety and Well-Being

- The Compensation Committee may assist the Board in its oversight of the Company's strategies, programs and initiatives related to employee health, safety and well-being, engagement, pay equity and diversity and inclusion.

VI. General

- The Compensation Committee may establish and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees consisting of one or more of its members, when the Compensation Committee deems it appropriate to do so in order to carry out its responsibilities.
- The Compensation Committee shall make regular reports to the Board concerning areas of the Compensation Committee's responsibility.
- In carrying out its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee shall be entitled to rely on advice and information that it receives in its discussions and communications with management and such experts, advisers and professionals with whom it may consult.
- The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to request that any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside legal counsel, the Company's independent auditor or any other professional retained by the Company to render advice to the Company attend a meeting of the Compensation Committee or meet with any members or advisers to the Compensation Committee.
- The Compensation Committee may perform such other functions as may be requested by the Board from time to time.
